Christophe Genoux

Biography

French musician Christophe Genoux is a very versatile performer, well known on the Melbourne music scene. Performing as a part of a duo or trio right through to a full big band, he plays saxophone, clarinet, flute, piano and is a singer with an extensive French repertoire. He is also a composer of jazz music and has released four albums.

Christophe's talent & Parisian chic is sure to contribute to the success of any function that requires Latin songs, up tempo swing tunes, fetching ballads, French love songs, catchy Parisian jazz...the works! The program can be tailor-made to accommodate whatever the occasion might be.

And if you haven't heard Christophe perform, listen out, as you may also hear him on TV as he is the voice in the Yoplait ads!

Christophe can perform vocals and/or sax alongside a combination of the following instruments:
